Space Equation

Pay for 100sq.ft., get 350 sq.ft.
The new space equation at DBS

- You pay for just 100 sq. ft. of space for a private office in a DBS business center. Once you do that, you get a reception area and lounge facilities, a pantry and washroom, equivalent to 250 sq. ft. of space free. If you were to rent an office elsewhere, you would be paying separately for all these facilities. That means you would need to pay for at least 350 sq. ft. of space instead of just 100 sq. ft.

- Host of additional services:

You don't have to pay for maintenance and housekeeping, electricity and airconditioning. The centers are fully-furnished and equipped (and the equipment is constantly updated). You have professional staff and security services.

All you pay for is that 100 sq. ft. of space for a private office.

Ideal for: Start-ups and small businesses as well as corporate houses who do not want to buy or rent premises of their own but want all the infrastructural, staffing and maintenance services provided.

It makes good sense to get an office at a DBS business center.
